

Special seminar invitation

Helping a spouse or loved one evaluate options for funding caregiving expenses can be difficult and complex. This seminar will cover how to start caregiving conversations with your family, as well as discuss other important financial and legal considerations.

You'll learn about:

- Where to begin once you've noticed signs that your loved one needs assistance
- Different options available to help pay for care
- Legal and tax considerations involving wills, trusts, and medical and long term care expenses
- Additional support and resources for caregivers

Navigating the financial aspects of caregiving
