

How to mention an upcoming event over the phone:

I just wanted to reach out and see if we can do anything for you and to let you know about an event we have coming up. You should receive your invite within the next couple of days. Feel free to bring friends and family. We hope to see you there.